

Stab pivots on two thin ply plates glued to each side of fin.

Cutout allows clearance for control arm to pivot.

Drill 5mm hole in each ply plate.

Glue one plate in place, make up a control arm from ply and CA to 5mm Carbon tube, insert rod in hole of installed plate, hook up control wire, then add second plate to hold everything in place.

Glue stabilizer halves to carbon rod.

